

Name: Billy Fields

Chief Investigator

Canonical Name: Horace Harker or the Central Press Syndicate

Email Address: billy.fields@nashville.gov

1. How did you become interested in Sherlock Holmes?
 - a. I began watching the old Sherlock Holmes movies on television as a child.
2. What is your favorite story or stories?
 - a. The Blue Carbuncle
3. Who are your favorite characters other than Sherlock Holmes and Dr. John Watson?
 - a. Billy
 - b. Mrs. Hudson
4. What do you enjoy about our monthly meetings?
 - a. The fellowship and the amazing depth of knowledge on just about every subject discussed...Canonical or not.

Biographical Sketch

During his more than 20 year career with Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County, Billy Fields has covered a lot of territory through a variety of assignments currently as director Transportation Licensing.

In this position, in addition to taxicabs, wreckers, limousines and shuttles, Fields is responsible for licensing horse drawn carriages. Obviously because of his love for the Game, this is his favorite assignment; he regularly spends time with the drivers and their animals.

A member of the Nashville Scholars since 1987, Fields has been very involved in the Sherlockian world including participating in conferences around the country as well as serving as auctioneer for the gaslight Gala during the BSI Weekend in New York City.

A native of Goodlettsville, Fields resides with his wife Donna in a Victorian home in Historic Edgefield in East Nashville.